Bibliography

Guesdon, Jean-Michel. All the Songs: The Story Behind Every Beatles Song. Black Dog & Leventhal Publishers, 2013. Accessed on January 20, 2021.

This book is very useful. Throughout the book, there is a minimum of three pages dedicated to each song and album description. Some songs and albums have over 6 pages dedicated to them which makes this book over 670 pages long. This source will be used most often for this project.

Miller, James E. "The Beatles." Encyclopædia Britannica, Encyclopædia Britannica, Inc., Accessed on January 20, 2021.

This source is useful because it touches on the topic for my introduction. In the introduction, I will be mentioning how the band got together and this website helps. This site will most likely be used for later sections too.
